

Chatham Islands Annual Report 2017/18

The Council adopted the Annual Report 2017/18 at their meeting on Thursday 13 December 2018.

If you are interested in understanding our progress towards Chatham Island Council's goals of creating a resilient and sustainable community that embraces diversity and builds growth for our people, our Islands and our future, we would encourage you to read our full Annual Report.

The summary document also includes a useful overview of the Council's activity for the 2017/18 financial year, which was a year of change and challenges for the Council.

These documents detail Council activities during 2017/18 regarding our:

Waste Management Strategy

Roading

Emergency Management Operations Centre

Sustainable water

Review of the Resource Management Document

Council offices and community complex

Social housing
